

More Than a Map: How Government Agencies are Collaborating on Geographic Information For Better Public Services

June 19, 2008
Hyatt Regency
Sacramento, CA

Bart Ney

Public Information Officer, California Department of Transportation

Bart Ney has worked with Caltrans in the Toll Bridge Seismic Retrofit Program for over 11 years. Mr. Ney was the Public Information Officer for the construction of the New Carquinez (Alfred Zampa Memorial) Suspension Bridge in Crockett and Vallejo California. He co-authored and co-produced a book and film titled "Spanning the Carquinez Strait." Mr. Ney is now the Public Information Officer for the Toll Bridge Program primarily focusing on the San Francisco - Oakland Bay Bridge Seismic Retrofit projects. The Bay Bridge Communications team Mr. Ney leads has won numerous local and national communications awards including the California Transportation Foundation's "Tranny Award" for best awareness campaign of 2007, the American Association of State Highway Transportation Officials (AASHTO) National Skills Award for best Media Kit of 2007 and 4 Transportation Marketing and Communications Association (TMCA) National awards for integrated communications, media relations and direct marketing for 2008.

Mr. Ney received a Bachelor of Science from the University of Southern California in Urban Planning and Real Estate Development in 1995.